

Privacy Policy – Kualakubs

Thank you for visiting the Kualakubs World School website and reviewing our privacy policy. Our policy is simple: We collect no personal information about you unless you choose to provide that information to us. We strictly do not share, give, transfer, or sell any of your personal information to any third party.

If you would like to understand how we record non-personal information when you visit our website or how we use the information you voluntarily submit, please read further.

Non-Personal Information That We Record

When you visit our website and browse, read pages, or download information, our website's operating system may automatically record certain general information about your visit.

During your visit, our system may record:

- The Internet domain of your internet service provider, such as "xyz.com" or "xyz.net," if you are using a private internet access account, or if you are accessing from a school, college, or organizational domain.
- The type of browser you are using (for example, Chrome, Firefox, Safari, etc.).
- The operating system you are using (such as Windows, macOS, Linux, Android, or iOS).
- The date and time of your visit.
- The pages you access on our website.
- The address of the previous website you visited, if you linked to us from another website.

This information is collected for statistical analysis and to help us improve the usability and effectiveness of our website. No individual or personally identifiable information is recorded through this tracking process.

Cookies

We use "cookies" on certain pages of the Kualakubs World School website to enhance your browsing experience and enable interactive features.

A cookie is a small file that a website transfers to your computer's hard drive, usually to keep track of your session while you are connected to that website.

The cookies used on our website:

- Do not collect personal information.
- Help maintain your browser session.
- Make navigation easier by preventing you from having to re-enter the same information while moving between pages.

To protect your privacy, please ensure that you close your browser completely after completing your session on websites that use cookies.

If you are concerned about cookies, you can configure your browser settings to notify you before accepting cookies. Most modern browsers provide options to view, manage, or disable cookies.
